She spent her working years taking care of her family and always making sure their needs were met before her own. Helen loved watching her grandchildren play basketball and softball. She always had the best time going to the casino with her sisters and playing the slot machines. Family was the most important thing in her life and she will be greatly missed.

Those she leaves to cherish her memories are her husband, Buddy Scribner; son, Mark Scribner; daughter, Lori Harris; siblings, Sandra Cogburn, Earl and Ina Mink, Jack and Kay Mink, Sue Seely, Jane and Lawrence Smiley; 8 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren; and a host of other family and friends who will deeply miss her.

“ My heart-felt sympathy to Helen's family. I praise and thank Jesus that Helen was a precious soul. I have such fond memories of her in school. She was my classmate. One of the best memories that I have of Helen and her Mink sisters is that they smiled and laughed. They were a happy family. Helen favored her Mother in facial appearance, but most of the Mink girls had that olive complexion. I just liked being around Helen because she was fun and she was happy. I loved that instant smile and laugh. Maybe that got trickled down from their Mother. I remember spending the night with her in her home east of Cement before I spent the night in her home in town in Cement. Helene was a VERY GOOD dancer in her youth. She was also a very good basketball player. Then she met the love of her life and had children. She was fortunate she had them close-by. I did not see Helen but a few times after she married, and that was at our class reunions, and she came with that smile and laugh. I phoned her some through the years, but I always remembered her on April 1. Today reminds me that I need to reach out more often to everyone. I am sad that I won't get to talk with and see her again this side of Heaven. She was such a great person. The Mink sisters have one less smile and laugh. What a loss.

“ Helen was a very special woman. She was always joking around and making people laugh. My heart goes out to her husband bud and her kids and grandkids. She will be truly missed.
