

Hercel Oliver Lofton

March 6, 1930 - May 7, 2024

With profound sadness, we announce the passing of Hercel Oliver Lofton on May 7, 2024, at the age of 94. Hercel's life, a tapestry woven with resilience, adventure, and boundless love, touched the hearts of all who knew him.

Born in Shomac, Oklahoma, on March 6, 1930, Hercel was a man of unwavering determination. He married his soulmate, Rosalee Lofton, in 1948, and together, they embarked on a remarkable 62 year journey filled with shared passions and enduring companionship.

Hercel's life was a testament to resilience. From his humble beginnings in farming to narrowly missing enlistment in World War II, he faced every challenge with unwavering resolve. His career in the oil fields, spanning nearly three decades, reflected his dedication and tireless work ethic. He earned a retirement from Sid Richardson after 29 years of service working gas plants and keeping their systems running.

Yet, Hercel's true joy lay in the simple pleasures of life. He found solace in the great outdoors, where he reveled in the company of his beloved grandchildren, sharing his love for camping and the wilderness. A skilled craftsman, Hercel poured his heart into his creations, finding joy in working with his hands and bringing his ideas to life.

His passion for adventure knew no bounds. Hercel and Rosalee forged lifelong friendships as they explored the wilderness, making memories that would last a lifetime. Their shared love for seeking out arrowheads and building dune buggies became cherished traditions, a testament to their deep connection and mutual respect. Hercel's 94th birthday, celebrated surrounded by family, was a poignant reminder of the love and admiration he inspired in those around him. As we bid farewell to Hercel, may we take solace in the enduring legacy of a life well-lived—a legacy of courage, love, and the relentless pursuit of adventure.

Hercel is preceded in death by his beloved wife, Rosalee, his mother, Ida Ellen Lofton, his

“ We are sad to hear of Hercel’s passing. I remember many family reunions with he and Rosalee! Laughter, joy, conversation, good food were what they brought to to day. Young and old were treated with love and kindness. When spoken of by our family, it was always with fond memories and appreciation. God bless you all at this delicate time. Blessings, Marcie (Lofton) Pennington

“ Pa I will miss your stories. I will always remember sitting with you in your room and helping you figure out that silly phone you didn’t like. Or coming home from school and seeing you sit at your computer playing solitaire. You always told me to check the shoe and it was always full of change. I miss you so much. You’re memory is alive forever with me.
