“ I found this today. Howard was my uncle. He was always so kind and gentle. Always interested in how I was doing. I still have the skeet shooting shell bag he gave me when I started our skeet shooting. I miss you uncle Howard

“ Howard was the older brother of my best friend Karl, growing up in Richardson. I remember fondly my childhood and Howard was always the older guy we all looked up to. His restored VW Beetle, his Viet Nam service, the sandlot football games, Howard was respected and admired. I've lost touch with the Hubers but the precious memories are forever. Rest in peace.
