

Ina Faye Hallmark

June 5, 1933 - September 17, 2010

Ina Faye Hallmark, 77, of Ravia, Oklahoma passed away on Friday, September 17, 2010 at OU Medical Center in Oklahoma City. She was born to Ronald W. Scruggs and Gertha Jane Cockburn Scruggs on June 5, 1933 in Chickasha, Oklahoma.

Shee lived most of her life in Irving, Texas where she raised her two children, Terrie and Randy Hallmark. She retired from Freeman Decorating as supervisor of the sewing room. Ina Faye was a member of the Oak View Baptist Church. She was a great lady who loved her family dearly. She was known for her baking, cooking, and antiquing. She was also known for her ability to eyeball an item and then turn around and make the dress, doll, costume or whatever it was she saw.

She was preceded in death by her parents; one sister, Ruthie Scruggs and three brothers, Howell Leon Scruggs, Huel Dillard Scruggs and Allen Wayne Scruggs.

Mrs. Hallmark is survived by her brother, Joe Donald Scruggs of Doddridge, Arkansas, her former husband, J. W. Hallmark of Ravia; he daughter Terrie Faye Hallmark of Santa Teresa, New Mexico; her son, Randy Whitmore Hallmark of Ravia; five grandchildren; twelve great-grandchildren; cousins, Lavern & Chick, Cora Catheryn and Aunt Billie; numerous nieces and nephews that she loved dearly.

Pallbearers for the service will be: Ronnie Scruggs, Matt York, JoshHallmark, A. J. Key, Peter Hodges and Todd Scruggs. Honorary Bearers will be: SPC Adam C. Smith and Jacob Hallmark.

Tribute Wall

“ Ina Faye Hallmark

October 05, 2023 at 07:47 PM

“ Rest in Peace Sweet Ina Faye.

We all love you, the Brantley Family.

Love you Terrie, we are so sorry and did not know.

Love, Brenda

Brenda Brantley Hankins - April 26, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ To Ina Faye's family. I am her cousin Sandra. Narvel was my father. I am so sorry to hear about her passing. Our Cockburn family is growing smaller. I know she will be missed. My prayers and thoughts will be with you all.

SANDRA JANE WALLACE - October 12, 2010 at 12:00 AM