“ Growing up one of the things I heard about Inez was that she was beautiful. I heard that again when I told my Aunt Georgia that Aunt Inez had passed away. My father was her brother, St. Elmo Weaver. I also heard that she kept the name of Jesus strongly. My mother, Vergie always taught us the name of Jesus and we hold the teaching. May all those who love her be comforted in knowing that those who choose to die first to themselves, choose in fact to live eternally with Christ...Brenda (Weaver) Petty-Rushing

“ Reading the BIBLE daily and sharing the gospel with those around her was a passion Inez adhered to. She loved her family dearly and was like a mama bear, no one messed with her children or family. She married John in June of 1946. They were proud parents of 5 children (Johnny, Lanny, April, Stephen and Andrea.) Needless to say her life was full. Stephen often talked of his Mother reading him the BIBLE, lightly scratching his back as a child and always being there for him. How phenomenal that Inez was called home on the day of her wedding anniversary - being greeted by JESUS, her husband and family. An amazing day in heaven that must of been! Love you Inez -we will meet again.

“ I have great memories of spending time with Inez and the entire family.

She and John always treated me like family. We had some good times on Meta Street. I always felt welcome and comfortable with the entire family, especially Steve who I have know for over 50 years. She will truly be missed.

“ Growing up one of my fondest memories was sitting next to my Mom. She would often lightly scratch my back and share some awesome ghost stories. We spent a lot of time with family, friends and the neighborhood kids from the block. Making ice cream or eating cantaloupe, watermelon was always a treat. 4th of July was always a big week for us. Johnny and Lanny were always shooting roman candles and pop bottle rockets - no one was safe :-). April and I enjoyed the black cat fireworks and m80 blowing up everything in site. Andrea was deadly with her sparklers. We didn't have much money but we had an abundance of my Mother's love. My Mother loved GOD with all her being. On Friday afternoon my Mother ask me to pray with her. Our words were God the Father, God the Son, God the Holy Ghost, 3 in 1, pray for me. My Mother's final BIBLE teaching to me. I will love her forever.

“ The stories she told about life memories. About her husband and kids and grandchildren.
Granny always had very sharp memory.
And did she love ❤️ the lord. 🙏
She was always more of a mother figure to me than a grandmother.
P.S
I was her favorite!!!
