“ Namaw, there are no words to express how much i miss you. Being out there on that hill is not the same without you out there with me. I miss sitting in the yard in the evenings having our daily talks, snappin beans, or just listening to the cars go by. I still sit outside and i'm bound and determind to keep that garden alive, but its still not the same..I will always miss you and think about you everyday!!##imported-begin##Lesa##imported-end##
