

J.D. Masters

July 2, 1930 - August 8, 2023

J.D. Masters of Stratford, Oklahoma was born July 2, 1930 on an 80 acre farm near Asher, Oklahoma to John D. and Myrtle (McPhearson) Masters. J.D. transitioned from this life early Tuesday morning in Sulphur, Oklahoma on August 8, 2023 at the age of 93 years 1 month and 6 days. He started school in Asher in the Cooper grade school and graduated from Stratford High School with the class of 1946 being the youngest in his class. At the age of 18, J.D. found a job with C&W construction Co. He was assigned to work in Heavener, Ok. where he met Kathryn Pilkington, at a local cafe. Only after 2 months, J.D. and Kathryn married in Van Buren, Arkansas on July 25, 1949. Two years later, their daughter Teresa was born. J.D. and Kathryn set their forever roots in Stratford.

December 26, 1956, J.D. and Kathryn purchased a small store from his dad and mom. J.D. and Kathryn invested 67 years in the business. In addition to running the store J.D. enjoyed his cattle operation. In 2005, J.D. considered cutting his store hours from 16 a day to 12 hours a day seven days a week. J.D. thought retirement was an 80 hour work week. One of his best moments in life was when both granddaughters graduated from East Central University. J.D. found the people of Stratford to be the biggest assets, when in times of trouble, there is always someone around to help you. He has done his share of helping Stratford families by providing food and gas for families facing financial hardships during his 67 years of business. J.D. and Kathryn were selected in 2002 as Blue Cross and Blue Shield ageless hero's for healthy aging role models as Business Champions serving the Stratford community. Also he served on the Stratford Board of Education during Teresa's High school days. He was kind and gentle and loved his family with all he had.

We moved to Stratford in 1962. My mom bought groceries at their store. Over time, they all became great friends. Their daughter, Teresa was in my grade in school. We also became friends. They had a great sense of humor and worked long hours, 7 days a week! I don't remember ever hearing them complain about it. One of my favorite memories is a reply that JD made to me. Cordially, I asked if he was doing ok. With a twinkle in his eyes he pertly replied, "not yet!"

He was over 90 at that time. I laughed out loud. Several times!! Not yet? He was still trying!

I guess we all better try harder to be ok! :).

He will be missed by many!
