“ Bradley was taken from us way too soon, but Our Heavenly Father knew the pain and suffering that his body was going through and he loves all of us so much that he called him home so he would not suffer any longer.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of the family, but especially his children, his mom and dad, and his siblings. May God continue to wrap his comforting arms around all and bless them with strength, peace, healing, and the fondest of memories to get through difficult times. Love, Hugs, and Prayers
