

Jae Lynn Mcleran

February 8, 1989 - April 1, 2026

Jae Lynn Mcleran, 37, left this world on April 1, 2026, at her home in Kingston, Oklahoma. She was born on February 8, 1989, in Dallas, Texas, to her mother, Rebecca McMillan, and her father, Leroy Wooldridge.

Jae Lynn was a resident of Tishomingo for 28 years. As a child, she was loving—but a little bossy—to her brother and sister, whom she adored behind her mischievous smile.

She worked at Madill Hospital before becoming a stay-at-home mom. She was known for making her famous meatloaf and enchiladas. Everything she cooked was made with love, and everything she did for others came from the heart.

Jae Lynn loved the summertime and spending time at the lake or river. She enjoyed fishing with her Papa Ken and working around the house. She loved going to church with Ken and attending church camp. Her children were the air she breathed, and she loved her nieces and nephews fiercely.

Jae Lynn leaves behind a family who loved her deeply and will miss her forever. She leaves a hole in their hearts that will never be filled.

She was preceded in death by her papas, Kentan Mcleran, Charles Gabury, Jesse McMillan, and her Grandma Parker.

She is survived by her daughter, Shelby Nicole Starn; her son, Camden Lee Starn; her mother, Rebecca McMillan; her Mema, Margaret Mcleran; her father, Leroy Wooldridge and wife, Michelle; her brother, Dakota Youngblood and wife, Kyra; her sister, Megan Eason; and her siblings, Christopher and wife, Rachael, Blake, Shanna, JD, Lacie, Brandon, Leroy Jr., and Megan Scott.

Give 'em hell up there and pray with Grandma Parker.

A celebration of life will be held at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, April 8, 2026, at the DeArman-Clark Funeral Home Chapel, with Pastor Chris Fields officiating.

Arrangements are under the direction and care of DeArman-Clark Funeral Home.
