“ Jim would put you in a good mood even when you didn't want to be. His sharp wit and humor was a real treat. Jim gave a great testimony for God after his earlier illness. Great husband and father. A good man and a great friend. I will miss him much. - John David Hudson

“ Without a doubt, Mr Jim will be greatly missed. It would make my day when he would come into the library to harass us. I am sure that at this very moment he and Joann Albreicht are up there having themselves one heck of a good time! He sure loved coming into the library and giving her a hard time before she retired. Sure going to miss that impish grin of his. God rest your soul, Mr Jim.
