

James Fletcher Martin

September 25, 1932 - January 15, 2021

James Fletcher Martin's life started September 25, 1932 born the seventh child of eleven born to John Fletcher Martin and Eva Cloe Beene Martin. James spent most of his childhood in the Elmore City area graduating from Elmore City High School in 1952. As an Eagle Scout he traveled to Valley Forge, Pennsylvania to attend the 1950 world jamboree. James won numerous shooting contest at an early age. After high school, James married his wife, Ramona Norvell Martin. Their marriage started March 14, 1954 at the First Methodist Church in Elmore City. They lived all of their marriage in Wynnewood, Oklahoma. They had many successful years running Martins Laundry and Cleaning Service. James sold speed queen washers and dryers and serviced them until he started farming in 1967. He continued to farm up until his death. James loved to hunt and fish. He and Ramona traveled to Alaska, Canada and the Gulf of Mexico on fishing and hunting trips. If you wanted to ride in his pick up you had to straddle the shot gun that was always in his front seat and were expected to get out and open all of the gates. He loved riding around and checking his cattle.

James is survived by his wife, Ramona Martin; daughters, Donna Whitaker and husband Gary Whitaker of Elmore City and his favorite granddaughter, Jenna Whitaker of Norman. Also survived by two sisters and two brothers, Nahoma Nation of Eugene, Oregon, Bob and Carolyn Martin of Moore, Oklahoma and Kathy and Charles Regier of Cordell, Oklahoma; sister in law,

Loreata Martin of Wynnewood.

A grateful thank you to Dewayne Kinslow and Sean Shattuck for being the farming for the last years.

Graveside services will be at 2:00 on Thursday, January 21, 2021 at Oaklawn Cemetery in Wynnewood with Reverend Steve Davis to officiate
