

James Roy Blanton

August 8, 1953 - March 3, 2011

James Roy Blanton, a resident of Holdenville was born August 8, 1953 in Sulphur, Oklahoma to James & Louise (Britt) Blanton. He passed away Thursday March 3, 2011 at Okla. City, Oklahoma at the age of 57 year 6 months and 25 days. James grew up in the Sulphur area, attending Sulphur schools. He worked in the construction business as a trucker and backhoe operator. James and Patricia Gerhart were married on March 5, 1992 in Sulphur. They had lived in Holdenville for the past 15 years. He was preceded in death by his parents James Blanton and Louise Blanton Price and a sister: Mattie Lorene Gordon Black.

Survived by his wife, Patricia Blanton of Holdenville, 4 daughters: Carolyn Gorrell of Stratford, Misty Wills of Stratford, Tamara Garrison of Davis and Karen Underwood of Bradington, Florida, 3 sons: David Decino of Arizona, Darren Gerhart of Mill Creek and James Eric Blanton of Holdenville, 3 brothers: Charlie James Blanton of Sulphur, Cecil Dewayne Blanton of Bennington and David Gene Blanton of Ada, sister: Juanita Hazlitt of Sulphur, 19 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild.

Services: Monday March 7 at 2:00PM at the First Baptist Church in Sulphur with interment to follow in Dolberg Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ James Roy Blanton

October 05, 2023 at 07:47 PM

“ Sorry to hear of your passing. Our prayers are with your family during this time. Rest In Peace.##imported-begin##Christy##imported-end##

March 06, 2011 at 10:47 PM

“ My condelenes to the Blanton Family, The Britt Family and all of the relatives of Roy. I know the pain you are going through. Your family is a close-knit family, they are strong like you. Rest well my dear friend you are where the streets are paved in gold and there is no suffering.##imported-begin##Sara (Eaves) Hernandez##imported-end##

March 05, 2011 at 08:15 PM