“ Aunt Norma and family: Mom & I have you all in our prayers during your time of sorrow. Just know that we are all family and with the grace of our lord and savior we can stand with each other and love one another. Without family we are nothing, remember that without one there would not be any other.

Uncle James was an important part of all our lives. He touch each of us in his on unique way. There were many stories he shared with us all and from those stories his life will be in our hearts for ever.

Love you all,
Rick and Aunt Barbara.
