“ Chris Gillum and Rooter Lee Families I am so very sorry for your loss. I just met Jesse this year and was getting to know him. He always had a big grin on his face and was always just a free spirited guy. I pray that God gives you all comfort and peace during this difficult. He was so young but God knew what he was doing, sometimes we don't understand but we have to trust God. Jesse you will be greatly missed. RIP Jesse till we meet again.

“ Jesse Gillum you will definitely be missed and even though we only would be around one another from time to time, I will always remember every single one and the conversations, laughs, jokes, shit talks, and all around good time they were. You was one of a kind my friend and I'm really glad I could call you my friend. We damn sure won't ever let your extraordinary memories be forgotten buddy. Give em hell Jesse. Til the next time....

“ We’re gonna miss you Jess! You always had jokes for days would put a smile on my face immediately the minute you walked in . Trae myself and the kids are gonna miss you like crazy. We love you so much Jess the mess! I’ll miss all those times you’d come over for dinner and that one time we made banana cream pie and taught me how to fold it in like grandma did. Such a beautiful life taken away to early. Big love Jess!

“ *My Dearest Outlaw Friend,
" Jesse Gillum"*

Words can't even Express the way I feel with the tragic loss of My Good Friend, I will miss your Amazing, Funny, Good Hearted, Kind,Humble Loyal Soul,and your strong jawed Beautiful Smile! You My Friend was a Unique Individual that will be missed by many!... Just alittle story about My buddy: I met Jesse a couple of days before his father Dean Gillum passed and he was 17yrs and turned 18 I wanna say it was the day he had to say goodbye to his idle & father. He didn't leave my side for nearly a week! So I never got to really meet his One of a Kind Pa Dean, but it was like I knew him because I had seen every picture and heard so so many stories about him. Jess was alot like his father in my eyes! He missed him dearly and now he's back in the presence of his Ol Man Dean Gillum living the good life in the presence of Our Wonderful God!! REST IN PARADISE keep em laughing and playing your ol guitar and singing your strong powerful poetic songs that you was so great at!!! Brother I love you and I plan on seeing you again, until then rest easy and I'll see ya later bro!!...

“ Jesse was one of Keevin's best friends. Always quick with a joke and always respectful to me. He made me laugh. He wrote an absolutely true poem about those boys and South Pott county. I'm so sorry 💔 so so very sorry that we lost him. But God has a greater plan for him. I believe that! Of all the boys Keevin ran around with I truly did love and trust him . I'm sorry for your loss, I know when Keevin hears about it he will be devastated.

“ Brenda, Kylie and Aunt Chris...I just learned late tonight the loss of your son, your brother , your grandson. I am SO VERY SORRY and my heart is heavy for all of you 😞. I know I've been in TN all these years & didn't really know Jesse but we still have the “family” connection. My memories of growing up in CA with his dad Dean(Wayne & Gary) are all treasured & we were all very close.

I pray that God will be with each of you...as you all , know our Gillum family has grieved many losses over the past couple years especially. I haven't understood the magnitude or “whys” of losing so many in such a short time but God has been my only hope & trust for the future. I know I can't do “this life” with HIM!

Please Lord , comfort Brenda, Kylie, Aunt Chris and all our family & the friends of Jesse tonight. We trust he is in your care, Lord.

Love you all & with many prayers.

“ Didn't know a couple of weeks ago when you came by that we would never see you here on earth again. Hope that you knew that you succeeded in helping people.. you made Jim and I feel better every time you were around. You are one of the kindest people I've ever known. Going to miss you my friend. We know where you went when you left this earth. We plan on seeing you up there one day. So until we meet again.
