

Jesse D McAngus

October 7, 1933 - November 16, 2021

Jesse D (JD) McAngus of Wynnewood, Oklahoma, was born October 7, 1933 to Danny and Mae McAngus in Hominy, Oklahoma. He passed away on November 16, 2021 at Baptist Integris in Oklahoma City at the age of 88. JD enlisted with United States Marine Corps after high school and was honorably discharged October 1961 as a Corporal (E-3). After his military service, he worked in the oil field that brought him to Perry, Oklahoma, and later went to work for Ditch Witch as a welder. He made this his career and retired from Ditch Witch as a welding foreman. JD also worked some weekends for Kemnitz Service Station where he enjoyed getting to visit with the customers. During his spare time, he loved to fish and teaching his kids how to fish. He could fish all day and sometimes all night. He would say when the fish weren't biting, that they were bound to start biting sometime, so we would keep fishing. He also loved to watch his kids and then his grandkids compete in sports. JD is survived by his six children, daughter, Diana Bateson and husband David of Perry, OK, son, Bill McAngus and wife Reinee of Pauls Valley, OK, daughter Kathy Fletcher and husband Craig of Norman, OK, daughter Kerry Mick of Stillwater, OK, son Richie McAngus of Cushing, OK and Daughter Melissa Coleman and husband Ron of Morrison, OK. 10 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. A sister Grace Turnbow and husband Carl of Drumright, OK, as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Tribute Wall

“ Jesse D McAngus

October 05, 2023 at 07:47 PM