“ Auntie Jewell was like a second mother to me, we had some good times together. Our last trip was to California. It was Kathy Tidwell, Auntie Jewell and I. They drove up to Silver City, NM and we went from there to California we had good laughs and good time. When My mother was living we went every summer to Sulphur as I was growing up. So many good memory of Auntie Jewell and Uncle Wayne. I miss my mothers brothers and sister so much. thank God for the Memories
