“ I used to walk in the Park with Jo and my sister-in-law Marie and was always amazed how Jo could walk so fast and talk at the same time. She was a beautiful lady inside and out. She left a big mark on all of us.

“ We had a school newspaper at Davis in the mid 70's called the Rip Off and one of my favorite song dedications was to Mrs. Aaron, she was our "Long Cool Woman in a Black Dress". She was so classy and always so well dressed. You will find hundreds of people who say she was their favorite teacher or that they learned the most from her. Prayers for all of her family, she will be greatly missed.
