

JoAnn Callen

January 10, 1935 - February 21, 2025

JoAnn Harrison Callen, of Tishomingo, Oklahoma passed away on February 21

A graveside service will be 2:00 p.m., Friday, February 28, 2025 at Bold Springs Cemetery in Milburn, Oklahoma with Pastor Sharon Cochran to officiate.

JoAnn was born on January 10, 1935 in Wapanucka, Oklahoma to Raymond (Teatnie) Harrison and Ruth Rebecca Hobbie Harrison. She attended Wapanucka Public Schools for 12 years, graduating in 1953. Following graduation, she moved to Ft. Worth, Texas, then on to Dallas, where she worked as a secretary. In 1954, she married her high school sweetheart, Leo L. (Jaybird) Callen. Together, they worked hard and saved money to buy land and cattle. They moved back to Oklahoma in 1963 to begin farming and ranching. For 30 years they worked together farming peanuts and raising cattle. JoAnn also worked at Murray State College as a business manager's secretary. Later, she worked part-time for the United States Post Office in Milburn and Coleman. During this time, they had 3 children, James Clinton, Cheryl Ann and Sharon Kay. Since she was 12 years old, JoAnn was of the Methodist Faith.

JoAnn is survived by one daughter, Cheryl Allen of Tishomingo; 9 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, and 4 great-great-grandchildren; one brother, Terry Harrison and wife Pam of Mead.

JoAnn is preceded in death by her son, James; daughter, Kay; 2 grandsons, Jeremy and Cody; her husband of 53 years, "Jaybird."

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to the Salvation Army
