

Jody Lynn Lowrance

September 5, 1976 - September 3, 2025

Jody Lynn Lowrance was born on September 5, 1976, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Kenny and Debbie (Bartley) Lowrance. She passed away on September 3, 2025, in Ada, Oklahoma.

In 2001, Jody married Patrick Cleburn, and together they were blessed with one son, Cooper Vess Cleburn, who was the light of her life. She is also survived by her sisters, Kelly Lowrance and Shannon Lowrance.

Jody grew up in Sulphur, where she attended school and graduated from Sulphur High School with the Class of 1995. After high school, she attended East Central University for two years before transferring to the University of Oklahoma, where she earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in social work. She went on to become a Licensed Clinical Social Worker, providing therapy and counseling to many throughout her career. She also devoted herself to mentoring and supervising aspiring social workers, helping them gain the supervised clinical hours required for licensure.

Growing up, Jody enjoyed attending rodeos with her dad and competing in barrel racing and pole bending. She was also a talented basketball player, playing throughout her school years. In her adult life, she found joy in raising her son, as well as spending time crafting and scrapbooking.

“ Jody was one of my very first friends ever. Even after I moved to Davis (3rd grade) we still kept in touch when we were young. I'm remember getting to go play at her house. We had so much fun, just us, the country and young imaginations. My condolences to her family

“ Jody was someone you could tell was passionate about her job and who cared so much for the people she helped. I was one of her clients and I am more than proud to say she was my therapist! She always brought happy energy into our sessions, her smile was so sweet! I always looked forward to talking to her every Wednesday. I will miss her calling my bed a nest and how much she loved Taylor Swift #Swifties4Life!!! I will miss her talking to my cat named Bobby! She loved animals and they loved her! My cat Bobby is such a feisty cat, but still always managed to weasel her way into my room, while I was having a talking session with Jody. Jody would talk about how Bobby was in for anger management, because she would nip at people and was always moody lol 🙄! Jody said Bobby needed to talk about her feelings. Bobby, miniature items, chocolate milk in a jug, Taylor Swift, my mental health, laughing, leftovers, peanut butter cookies, among many other things will remind me of Jody Lynn Lowrance! I remember making her peanut butter cookies one time and my mom made her a Therapist shirt, we wanted to thank her for how much of a positive impact she made on my life. I don't think I would be here without Jody, I have a hard time escaping my brain and she helped immensely in the way of making me feel "normal", she helped me have hope for myself, when it felt as if I had none for myself. She told me about building new healthier habits and talking to myself like I would my friend. Jody never made me feel like a burden. We would always end our sessions with a big hug! She made me feel strong when I felt the complete opposite. She helped me label all my chaotic feelings! All I am trying to say is, she was such a funny, lovely, lively, life-changing, comforting, person and that I will always remember her for the rest of my life in my heart and in my brain, that is much more clear thanks to her! She was a caring listener! ❤️

Jody was a natural photographer. It didn't matter if you were human, animal or mineral, every photo she took was amazing. Prayers for Jody's immortal soul and for the Angels to be comforting Cooper and Kelly.
