“ Jodie was a good man, I met him when I was in high school and ran with his stepdaughter Robin.

There was never a time that I ran into him that he didn't hug my neck and tell me he loved me as we were saying goodbye,

He called my work about a month ago and said, I just called to tell you I love you. I guess he thought of me as one of his many adopted kids and knew his time was approaching to go be with the Lord. Love you, Jodie.

You will so be missed around Sulphur.

Drive that big rig down those Golden Streets in Heaven, Jodie.
