“ I loved Juanita from the time I met her at worship services at the Church of Christ in about 1972. She, Jerry, and Nina were always faithful to be at every service. I loved to hear her sing in her pretty alto voice. The other children were already away from home when I met them. She was a very fun loving happy person, friendly to everyone. She will be missed but God has promised a reward of being in paradise until the Judgement day, and then a home on Heaven to those who are faithful. I send my condolences to her family.
