“ Symone was such a genuinely kind, loving, gentle person. When I think of her I always picture her sweet, friendly smile. She was kind to everyone and a true example of how we should all treat each other. My heart goes out to her family and all who will miss her terribly. The obituary was lovely and so true - Symone is home with God now and. I pray that you feel God's calming comfort and strength as you say "Goodbye for now" to one of the absolute best of us. Love, hugs and prayers.

“ I don't even know where to being to tell you her family how much Symone means to me and how much her friendship has impacted my life. I don't know what life without Symone is like since she has been part of my life for 35 year's. I know she is singing in the angel's choir and rejoicing because she has made it to heaven.

I pray God gives you all peace and comfort. I pray God give you strength each day!

This isn't goodbye, this is a I'll see you again someday! Watch over us sweet sweet Sister
