“ When I think of Kenneth Jarrell, I think of a quiet, gentle giant of a man. There was never a time when visiting the Stratford congregation that he didn't make an effort to speak to me. He has been a devout Christian example to everyone and will no doubt leave a huge void in the lives of those who knew him.

I know it's so sad to lose a loved-one, but it excites me to think of the reunion in Heaven as Kenneth walked those pearly gates last week-- his parents, his daughter and my friend Kaye Donna, his infant grandchild, and so many friends and loved ones! It won't be long until a lot of us will be going home, and the Jarrell family will welcome us with open arms. God bless you as you grieve for Kenneth.

“ Kenneth was a true example of what a Christian should be. Heaven is a richer place with him, and those of us left here are richer for knowing him. Say hello to your niece for me. Mike Herron
