“ Dear Kenneth,

I am writing this in the form of a letter to you because its more for you than anyone else.

I heard about you passing away today. It's hard to believe that you are gone.

I know that we only had a short time together however it filled my heart with a life time of memories. You were my first love and you will always be to me.

We met when we were teenagers and I spend the summer in Tishomingo. We spend almost all out time together before I had to leave. (not that I wanted to.) I wondered over the years what happen to you because I never heard from you after you took me home.

23 years later, I wrote you a letter to see how you were. You showed up at my door step. (no call or letter - no warning - just showed up.) We spend the next two and half - three years trying to make our relationship work out.

They say people change over the years, however in our case, we didn't change. You were still the soft, gentle and loving man I loved the first time. What did change was our lives.

You met your two ex-wives whom gave you children which you loved with all your heart and soul. You build our life around them, Caring for, loving and protecting. You tried to teach them about your favorite hobbies, (hunting and fishing). You could not leave them, even though at times they did not want your around - you were there any time they called. Then came the grandkids - the little ones your heart rejoiced to be around as well.

As for me, the same as you, however in a different part of oklahoma - that I couldn't leave.

It hurt to much the first time we said good bye so we didn't say it the second time - we just walked away loving each other, hoping the best for each other with our memories of each other.

Kenneth, I will always love you and you will always be my first love. May you rest in peace and continue to watch over your family from heaven. You will be deeply missed by me and others who knew you well. And I know when its my time to go to heaven to look for you at the fishing hole or where the deer run in heaven until then with love - I will see you later (no good byes still - just later love).

With love always

P. S. I see you got the big ONE!!!!

“ I cant believe God gave you to me for such a short period of time. We had so many plans for the rest of our lives TOGETHER and herel am alone.I truly don't understand why I am being treated the way I am but I know they will have to answer for it at some point in their lives. I don't think they understand what we really felt for each other.There are gonna be people mad over this entry but I felt like I had to do it. Kenneth Wayne Elkins I loved you yesterday I love you today and I will love you even more tomorrow.I love you with all my heart body and soul and will never love another. Maybe someday I will understand the way I am being treated. Rest in peace babe untilwe meet again. I LOVE YOU AND WILL TILL THE DAY I DIE.
