“ I am so sorry for the loss of your precious Son. I can only tell you to take one day at a time and deal with this your own way. Everyone deals with the loss of a child differently so don't let anyone tell you how you need to act or how you need to do it. I have been where you are and it is the worst thing a parent ever has to go through. I can tell you that you have a lot of family and friends that love you and lean on them as much as possible. I love you too. The emptiness never goes away but you do learn to go on and this is just goodbye for just a little while because we will see our babies again soon. God has a plan for Kevin as we speak. I nor you will ever have the answers but we have to trust God. I know it is not going to be now or not anytime soon but when and if you ever would like to talk please I am here for you any time day or night. My number is 580-369-8990.

*I truly love you ,

“ Kevin's Beautiful Family,

We are so heartbroken for you with your devastating loss. We will continue to lift you up in our prayers. May God heal your broken hearts and give you a peace that only he can.

God blessed our family in a great way with Kevin. He was and will always be a huge blessing to us. He was so accepting of us when we were new to town. He embraced us with the love of Christ; such a wonderful young man. Although he is gone from the life, he will never be forgotten in our lives, nor will each of you.

We loved watching and being with him! He was such a joy to be around, so compassionate, smart, and clever. He is awesome in Heaven now.

Love, Capshaw's Mom and family.

“ I remember when Kevin was in my 6th grade class. He was so much fun and a leader. During that year another student's mom died. The next day at school we spent time sitting in a circle on the floor talking about their feelings. After a while, Kevin said I think we just need to pray. At that point, he led the class in praying for the girl who lost her mom and all of them in the days ahead. It was truly special. Kevin was a special young man. Now my prayers are for all of you.

“ Here's to my friend, my prom date, the first guy to ever tell me he noticed that one of my eyes is flecked with green, a coordinator of shenanigans, a special soul who made life joyful -- you will be missed dearly. Prayers for your family and friends who will never be the same without you. Rest in peace, Kevin.

“ Kevin was our neighbor here in Ardmore, my husband and I loved watching him spend time playing with Braxton. You could just see Kevin glowing with love for his son. He always had a smile and was just a joy to have for a friend.

He will be greatly missed. Our prayers and thought are with all his family during this time of your loss and grief. Jimmy and Anita Dobbs. Ardmore
