

Letha Fay O'Bryan

December 10, 1936 - April 25, 2019

A graveside service to honor and celebrate the life of Letha Fay O'Bryan will be held at 1:00 P.M. Wednesday, May 1, 2019 at the Tishomingo Cemetery.

Letha Fay O'Bryan age 82, passed away on April 25, 2019 at Blue River Healthcare in Tishomingo, OK. Letha was born on December 10, 1936 in Tishomingo to the parents of Sherman and Ruby (Phillips) Thomas. She spent her years growing up and calling Johnston County home for most of her life. Letha enjoyed playing dominos, quilting and traveling. Her family would tell you some of her favorite memories were when she got to travel to Israel, which she did twice. She was a faithful, devoted and supportive member of the Abundant Life Cathedral in Tishomingo and loved her church family dearly.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Sherman and Ruby Thomas; husband, Carl "Hi" O'Bryan; sons, David and Alan Hallmark.

Those she leaves to cherish her memories are her son, Terry Hallmark; sister, Pat Nuner; brothers, Charles and Richard Thomas; daughter in law, Stacy Hallmark; grandchildren, Madison Hallmark, Allan Hallmark and Dillion Stephens and a host of other family and friends who will deeply miss her.

“ My sincere condolences to Terry Hallmark and the family of Letha. She was a spiritual mother to me for many years. We shared some good times and trying times but were both sure of what God had done in our lives. Terry my heart hurts for your losses, I am so glad that you and David's children have your memories to cherish of your moms do grandmother. May God heal your hurts and give peace to you all. Sincerely, Mary Payne
