“ I am Linda's aunt from California. I have a lot of, precious memories of Linda growing up. she was a very ornery child, loved pestering all of her younger cousins. But had the biggest heart, she lived with her Nana for awhile with her mom...and loved to be nana helper. Linda loved talking about her loving children and grandkids, she was so proud of them. When we talked on the phone she would always bring up past stories, and we would laugh so hard. I will dearly miss her. But believe she is with her Mom and Nana pestering them now, and there enjoying every second of it. RIP Linda. I love you. And you left behind a lot of broken hearts.Gone to soon.
