“ I have no words that can fully describe who Linda was to me and my family and so many others in her life. Her works and her love for others and for Christ always will speak so much louder than any words. My thoughts and prayers are focused on her family and friends at this terrible time. There will be sorrow and tears here for all who loved her on this earth, but Linda is in the best place of all and her pain and her tears for her lost loved ones are over. She is with God.

“ Isaiah 57:1 The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. Another smiling face is gone. Worker in the church to receive her reward. Her soothing little laugh and kind voice will be missed by all who knew her.
