

Lisa Davina Biggs

March 5, 1963 - June 19, 2026

Lisa Davina Biggs, 63, passed away on June 19, 2026, in Durant, Oklahoma.

Lisa was born on March 5, 1963, in Tishomingo, Oklahoma, to Arthur "Ott" Biggs and Lela (Chester) Biggs. She graduated from Tishomingo High School in 1981 and went on to hold several positions throughout her career at Murray State College.

A woman of strong Baptist faith, Lisa's life was centered around her family and the people she loved. As a child, she was a true daddy's girl who learned at an early age to be tough while growing up alongside her brothers. She could give back just as good as she got, and that strength and determination stayed with her throughout her life.

More than eight years ago, Lisa met David Lunsford online, and he quickly became the love of her life. She often said he was "the best thing I ever got from the internet." Together they shared a special bond filled with love, laughter, and companionship.

Lisa took great pride in caring for those around her. She was passionate about cooking and was especially known for her delicious fried chicken. Her family was her greatest joy, and she was incredibly proud of her son, Corey, and cherished every moment spent with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Known affectionately as "Carnie" by her grandbabies, Lisa embraced every opportunity to love, nurture, and support her family.

Lisa often credited Memaw for teaching her the importance of being caring and compassionate. She carried those lessons throughout her life, holding an abundance of love in her heart for others. She was truly the glue that held her family together, and her absence will be deeply felt by all who knew and loved her.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Arthur "Ott" and Lela Biggs; and her brother, Stacy Biggs.

Those left to cherish her memory include the love of her life, David Lunsford; son, Corey Biggs Meyers and wife, Kristie; daughters, Hayley Lunsford and husband, Nicholas, and Harley Lunsford; brothers, Larry Biggs and wife, Sandra, Rance Biggs, and Karl Biggs and wife, Tia; grandchildren, Carson Hancock (Hadon), Cassie Wahlen (Aaron), Isabella Batman (Vincent), and Lily Meyes; along with numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.

A Celebration of Life service is pending at this time.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to DeArman-Clark Funeral Home to assist with final expenses.
