“ I knew of Mr. Garrett because he was always at every sports event I was ever in or at. It didn't matter if it was a track meet, basketball game, or football game he was always there. I loved every time I spoke to him because he asked me about what I was doing, and he actually knew where I ended up going to college years later. He was always so genuine when he asked what I was up to. A truly great man. I will miss waving at him fixing up a lawn when I run by every summer. I appreciated every conversation I ever had with him more than he will ever know. Much love ❤️

“ Shawna/Shelly,

I love you both so much. Your dad was not only the most gentle man I have ever met and the most rapid OU fan, he was without question the best uncle that anyone could ever have.
