“ I did forget to say in the post about Marks birthday. Marks brother Chester or Junior we all called him his birthday was September 09, 1943...and Mark's being September 09, 1952.

I forgot to mention Mark also liked to work on Ancestry Family Tree as I did he would call me or I had called him sharing our family trees and comparing them to see if anything new could be shared. It was a part time hobby of a passing interest to Mark he once got hold of distant kinship of ours in France.

He loved sharing his garden so much he loved planting sharing his blessings of whatever he had planted and its yield.

If Mark had a piece of advice to offer he was always so good to listen to yours and so polite even just talking to his sister here, me, he would say yes mam.

I love this brother and will miss him so very much as we all will Mark had a unique special way about him. Each one of my brothers or sisters have a uniqueness and specialty about them they can be so different but oh so special and unique.

When Mark would share family things he loved to tell of his wife and call her Miss Brenda he would tell me if he called before he hung up here let me turn you over here to say a few words to Miss Brenda if you want to.

“ Mark was born on his brothers birth, seems like they both had the idea of going home this year. Mark said when mom and dad brought him home from the hospital since he was born on his brother Juniors birthday, Sept 09, They told Junior come look what we brought you for your birthday. Jr took one look at Mark and said I rather have a pony. Mark would chuckle and say yes I never forget to call him on his birthday. His sis Kathleen
