“ *To the family of "Bojangles",
May you find comfort in knowing that God is watching over you. He sees you walk through the bend in the road, and though you don't anticipate the disruptive moment, He does. Even in life's most disruptive moments, God's love is sufficient.*

“ I just don't know what to say except I am truly sorry for your loss. He was such a great guy with a great heart and smile. I will have to say he helped inspire my love for "country" music. Everytime through the years that I hear Mr. Bojangles I think of Mark. "He let go a laugh" was Mark. He will be missed.##imported-begin##Terri Wilson##imported-end##

“ Donna and Denise,

I have not seen the two of you in years but I have seen Mark and of all places it was at the Wynnewood Cemetery. I remember when we saw each other he had a smile on his face and then gave me a big hug. It was great to see him.

I have fond memories of us living next door to each other when you owned the funeral home. We certainly got in to a little mischief more than once.

My thoughts and prayers are with you and his family.##imported-begin##Debbie Ruggles Campbell##imported-end##
