“ Though I never had the privilege of meeting Mrs. Steele, I feel as if I have. See, I met Kay, a few years ago and though we live far apart, I have come to love her as one of my own sisters. So, you see, anyone who could raise such a wonderful woman as Kay, must have been an extraordinary woman herself! Being a strong woman in her faith I wrote this for her as well as, her family: God took the fragrance of a flower, the majesty of morning hour. The soul of a stormy night, the beauty on the hour of twilight. The grace of a bird in flight, the wisdom of an owl knowing everything will work out just right. Then God fashioned from these things a creation like no other--And when His Masterpiece was through, He simply called it Mother! Kay, to you and all of your loved one's I extend my hand of sympathy and condolences! I pray that God lay his hand upon you and your siblings hearts and ease the discomfort that this part of life bring to us all! Having to say goodbye means you will never see someone again, so, if you think of it this way, you aren't saying goodbye, you're just telling her until I see you again! Michael and I love you and know your mother, your family and especially you our dear Kay are in our thoughts and prayers!###imported-begin##Rita Bourgeois-Bauer###imported-end##
