“ When I was little we had so much fun going on adventures and climbing on the rock garden, collecting crawdads at the tank to fish, walking down to hominy creek to stick our feet in the water, shucking corn in the pasture as the cattle ate them. We would always make one or two trips to the Pawhuska museum every time I got to stay with Ma Ma and grandad's. I will always have amazing memories and the loss is staggering. When she could still make little trips she loved to come over to mine and Jon's house. We would push her in the pasture so she could pet our goats and play with the babies.
