

Martha L. "Cricket" Thompson

November 27, 1928 - February 24, 2024

Martha L. Thompson, known by her family and friends as "Cricket" was born November 27, 1928 in Sulphur, Oklahoma to William Henry and Mary Micki (Ashton) McClure. Cricket passed away on Saturday, February 24, 2024, in Edmond, Oklahoma. After graduating High School in Sulphur, Cricket married Amos Frantz and worked in the cosmetic department for John A. Brown's in downtown Oklahoma City for several years. Amos served in the Military and upon his release from Military duty, he worked with Sears. They enjoyed living in Oklahoma City until his passing January 8th, 1985. Francis Thompson and Cricket married in the First Christian Church in Oklahoma City on October 14, 1995. They enjoyed their friends and opportunities to serve many ways in the Church, most diligently helping the survivors of the Murrah Building Bombing. Francis passed July 23, 2014.

Cricket is survived by her nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husbands, Amos Frantz and Francis Thompson; brother and sister-in-law, David and Melva McClure.

Services will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 27, 2024 at DeArman Funeral Home Chapel in Sulphur. Interment to follow at Oaklawn Cemetery. Arrangements were made under the direction of DeArman Funeral Home.

“ Cricket was an extraordinary combination of sophistication and simplicity. She loved opera, reading, studying and engaging discussions. Yet she also loved the simplicities of life, tending her beloved cats and the beauty of the natural world and baking, at which she excelled. She was such a good listener, it was easy to miss her quiet treasures. She was a remarkable & loved woman!
