“ So sorry for your loss. Just ran across this obit today. I can remember Mary at the bank, Walmart, Bull Dog Video, when you kids were little and all through high school. She was just a part of Sulphur, and the thought of her passing so early deeply saddens my heart. She was loved by all who new her, and that sweet smile and loving personality is what we will all remember. We are blessed by having known her. Thank the Lord we know we'll see her again someday.##imported-begin##Deborah McMahan##imported-end##

“ Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer.

Mary was an extraordinary lady..she always knew how to make you smile. I enjoyed our time working together at the Main Street Diner.

My condolences to you and your family.##imported-begin##Dawn Summers##imported-end##

“ Mary,

You'll always be my older cousin that I looked up to. Thanks for taking the time to share your memories of my Dad with me. I cherish your stories of him lifting you by one arm every time you saw each other. Also, I will always admire how you were dedicated to helping your parents. I remember talking to you about going to college, but you felt you were needed at home instead. When I saw you go through rough times, I always wished for you love, and continual happiness. I'll always remember the smile on your face, the wrinkling of your nose, the giggle and smiles at the sight of your girls and grand girls. Another favorite memory I have of you is teasing Aunt Shorty's hair, and all that hairspray! It came so natural to you to help others. I was thrilled to hear that you had remarried, because if any person deserved to love and be loved, it was you. You will always be in my heart.

Love,
