“ We move just south of Mary in 1989. Over the years Mary became family to us. She watched our children grow up, marry, and move away.

We will miss Mary's smile and laugh, and her garage sales! She loved working, whether in her yard or someone elses. It always amazed me how she would just load up her lawnmower and take off to town, move several yards, then come home and do her own, seeming never tired!

Mary also cleaned houses and did ironing, and for many years cared for two of her grand daughters, whom she loved dearly. For several years, she cleaned my Grama's house. I always knew when Mary had been there because it smelled so good! She would clean and hum, hum and clean, always happy! Mary did love life!

I will always miss you Mary! Love, Tracy
