

Mary Lou Winters

December 27, 1931 - June 25, 2013

Mary Lou Winters, a resident of Wynnewood, OK, was born on December 27, 1931 to Gertha (Simpson) and R.O. Cowin in Oklahoma City, OK. She went to be with the Lord on June 25, 2013 in Sulphur, Oklahoma after a short illness. Mary Lou was raised in Wynnewood, Oklahoma. She married Jean Winters on March 6, 1953 in Gainesville, Texas. They lived in various areas in Oklahoma as Jean worked as a specialist operator for Schlumberger. After the death of her husband and daughter she moved back to Wynnewood to live out the rest of her life. She worked for many years in the medical field as a transcriptionist. She worked the last 20 years for Dr. Steve Moore in Pauls Valley, OK.

Whether you knew her as Mary, Nan, Nanny, Mom, Big Momma, or Birdie when you met her you knew she was a special lady. Her family was the light of her life. She had a reputation for her wonderful cooking; her trademark was her special fried chicken.

She was preceded in death by her husband Jean, daughter Cindy Lou, parents R.O. and Gertha Cowin, sister Jimmie Faye Richardson, and a brother Zane Cowin.

She is survived by her sons and daughters in law:
Pete and Brenda Winters
