“ Mike was a kind man who was an amazing carpenter/ painter/ whatever he did!! He did his work to perfection. He helped me to understand things that were of utmost importance to me. He helped me to forgive myself after a tragic loss, and his words were wise and warm. He was a treasure to me and to my husband. I pray that he is at perfect peace because that is what he offered me more than once. God bless you, CASSIE! He loved you more than anyone or anything on earth. Love to you!

During the 60's and 70's Mike was the "cool" uncle with long hair and a motorcycle who would give us careful rides around the block that I still remember. In later years he took amazing care of my grandparents, his father and mother. They never had to go to a nursing home and never wanted for a thing until the day they died. I'll always appreciate how he literally pampered them for years.
