“ Milton, was one year ahead of me in school, but I rode the bus with him, Otis and Twilla for many years. He had a singing voice that was comparable to many recording artists and loved to hear him sing, "Friends in Low Places." I haven't seen him much lately, but have and will always have good memories of him.

“ He was such a great man that loved God and others. Milton was very talented and he loved to use his talent. He will be missed by many people and we as God's children can celebrate that one day we will see him again. Praise God for that hope we have.
