“ She was the first person to give me a vase and flowers in it when I started working for the Ambulance. We ran on a family member and she wanted to thank me. I loved that vase and still have it. I tried to go talk to her at the store when I was around and off. Beautiful, sweet person. Donna Wood

“ My heart is breaking!! I first met dear Naomi 29 years ago. She always treated me with respect & humility. She was always warm, caring, personable and pure of heart. It was a joy to see her during the holidays. It warmed my heart to see how much she loved flowers we had sent to her. She will be missed SO much. Our love and prayers goes out to the Hardin family.
