Obituary for Norma Rhodes

Norma Rhodes was born March 7, 1937 in Stratford, Oklahoma to Elvis and Wilda (Endicott) Morris. She passed away on April 22, 2024 in Ada, Oklahoma at the age of 87 years. She grew up in Stratford on a farm south west of town. She was a member of the Stratford First Baptist Church. Norma Jo graduated from Stratford High School with the class of 1954. After graduating she married Jim Bittle the next year, and from that marriage was born Donna and Keith. She moved to Oklahoma City where she worked the Nines Bay for Dillards for several years; as she grew as a business woman she wrote; and published her cookbook, Everything's Peaches as a tribute to her home town of Stratford. Norma then found her business calling in Real Estate. She was a Broker for Paradigm Realty before opening her own company Premier Real Estate. However, as time passed, her favorite title was being a Grandma. She loved to dote on & spoil her four grandkids. Anytime Easter or Christmas rolled around you could always find those grandbabies all dressed up in matching suits & dresses thanks to grandma. Taking them to the movies or even Rock & Bowl, out to eat or shopping. She loved her family fiercely & passed on a great legacy.
