“ Connie, Sheila, Wanda Jane and Barrett and all her other family, I feel so much for yall. I thought of your mother like my own sister. I loved her with all my heart since the first day I meet her, before some of you were even born. She was so wonderful to everyone she meet, always made me feel so welcome and loved, she was just that way. So many wonderful and funny times and stories to remember her by. I hope your hearts can find a way to start healing soon, she was always so proud of all yall. I wish I had some magic words to make your hearts start healing now but that is impossible, there are none, time will have to do that and I hope it will start soon for all yall. I love you all and I feel truly lucky to have known your mother. Even though we didn't talk in the past few years I love her to this day and miss herAunt Rhonda
