“ Patricia Dean Chilton was always fun growing up. She was my beloved first cousin who lived 800 miles away in St. Louis. I always loved visiting her whenever possible. I'm sad we grew apart and feel sorrow for her loss, for myself, but especially for Steve and their two daughters. Pat was brilliant, honest, caring and focused on her education and career. The world lost one of our finest people the day she perished. May she be having a wonderful time on the other side, free of pain and disease.

“ To my girls Sam and Val as well as your father...I am so sorry for the loss of your mother. She was so wonderful. Your family made me feel so welcome when I came to Wynnewood. I always enjoyed conversations with your mom and ALL the help she gave me. Thank you for sharing her with us. My prayers are with your family.##imported-begin##Casey Allen Reichardt##imported-end##

“ Steve,

Debbie & I are saddened by the loss of your wife, Pat. While I know you and your daughters miss her greatly, I believe God has lifted your collective burden of watching her recent struggles with her health. Pat is now free of her bodily limits. While I do not know the pain from losing my spouse, I do know the pain from losing a child. I pray you and your girls encounter the same love and support we received from you and others to carry you through this difficult period.

“ *Dearest Family of Pat,
Your wife and Mother was a lovely lady. She was a kind, honest, giving lady who loved her family dearly. I am sure that you will miss her terribly. Even though I rarely talked with Pat, I knew that she was there, if I wanted to contact her. Please know that you are in my prayers and that I will miss her also. Sincerely, Judy
