“ We shared some wonderful times growing up as cousins & neighbors in Tishomingo. We all have an "expiration date" that our loving Heavenly Father has stamped on us; it's good we don't know the date but it's even better to look forward to our "eternal life" and live as if it could be today. Love you, Patti. --Becky Essary Dickenson

“ It's almost like we knew Patty through Charles and Carol but we only met a time or two. It was a sudden ending but at least she didn't suffer. It's never easy no matter what so we send our condolences and wish the best to all the family.

“ Patti truly was a light in this world. She always had a kind smile and a story to tell. Her gift for writing stories and poetry was really a gift for all of us. I'd like to share a passage from a story she wrote when she started a new career journey:

"I encourage you all to be positive; to care less about what other people think, and to take more time to enjoy your life. Be kind to one another. Lift each other up. Laugh together.

As I begin this journey I am going to quit wasting time worrying over what could have been, or worrying about what will be. I plan to eat dessert every single day and never miss a shoe sale!!!"

Thanks for the reminder, Patti! May God comfort her friends and family during this difficult time. She will be missed by so many
