“ So very sorry to hear this news of Paul's passing. Paul and I worked together both while he was at the watershed office and after he became technician at Sulphur. Paul was a kind and pleasant person whose thoroughness and dedication to his job I always appreciated. You are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Paul Burton, a wonderful and upbeat employee with the Davis Watershed Office was part of the "The three Musketeers' whose membership included Paul Burton, Bosky Jones, and Wayne Holler". They kept the laughter rolling and there will be no one like them again.

To the family of Paul, he will be forever remembered as a true friend. My condolence's to the family.
