“ Paul,

I don't know where to begin... I watched you grow up, and you used to come to my house all the time, you Heather, Jolynn, Tiffany, and Ivan, and manuel. Sometimes you would come over just to talk other times was just to play the computer or whatever. I remember how excited you were when you got your first car and your license. I remember you driving up and down the road. You grew up before my eyes and now you went to meet our father before me. It's not supposed to happen that way! I am older, I am supposed to go first, You are supposed to stay here and grow old with Bethany. I pray for god to watch over bethany and Heather and all of your friends. I pray god comforts them and gives them strength to get through this. God Bless you Paul, say Hi to Tiffany and my parents for me!##imported-begin##Sara Hernandez##imported-end##

“ Some days, there just isn't much to say... There is no good explanation to why bad things happen, why people die young, and why God chooses to execute His plan in certain ways... Our only hope is to know that God's in complete control.. Although, that doesn't seem to always make it easier when tragedy is in front of us. Praying for your family during this sorrowful time~ May you all find comfort in God's healing hands.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. ~John 14:1-3

“ Bethany, we are so sorry for your loss. Anthony was a very very sweet young man with tons of potential. I know that he loved you very much and finally found true happiness. His upbringing was hard, but once he found you he found joy. May God bless you and give you comfort.
