“ We, in the Wright family, have wonderful memories of Polly and Bea. For the great nieces and nephews they were more like grandparents to us all. I remember the wonderful dinners at Easter and sometimes Thanksgiving, spending a week with Polly and Bea in the summer, going to visit them almost every Sunday afternoon. Some of my best memories growing up were of Polly and Bea. I remember Polly taking care of cattle, making creamery butter; she could build anything and the beautiful rugs and quilts she hand-made. God blessed Polly with lots of talent. She was a wonderful Christian person. The memories of Polly and Bea will always remain in our hearts. I am very saddened that I am unable to attend Polly's funeral service; but there is peace knowing that Polly no longer suffers and knowing she is so happy to be reunited with Bea and to live forever with her Heavenly Father.
