“ *Ralph was indeed a kind and happy person.
He was everyone's friend.
We went from 1st grade through 12th together.
He's in a better place now.*

“ I grew up with Ralph in Sulphur. We went to school together, played football together and wrestled on an outstanding team. In fact, Ralph placed in many tournaments! He was loved and respected by his teammates and friends. Although I lost track of Ralph over the years I will always appreciate the memories of shared laughs, his kindness and our friendship. Rest in peace old friend! -- Pete Reed
