Randall "Randy" Lynn Chandler, born March 27, 1953, to Ted and Evelyn Chandler in Wynnewood, Oklahoma, passed away on March 4, 2026, at the age of 72. Randy built a life rooted in loyalty, hard work, and deep love for his family. In May of 1990, he married Judy Raines Tweedy, and together they shared 35 years of marriage filled with devotion, partnership, and countless memories. Randy loved nothing more than the time he spent with his family. He was a devoted grandfather and great-grandfather, and his happiest moments were those shared with the people he loved most. He enjoyed being outdoors, especially when he was boating, fishing, or camping. Arbuckle Lake was one of his favorite places, and many cherished memories were made there. Weekends often found Randy tending the grill, barbecuing for family and friends, creating the kind of gatherings that brought everyone together. Randy was a boilermaker by trade, a skilled welder who spent his life building oil tanks and later water towers. He took great pride in his work. He retired from Circle P Welding approximately five to six years ago, closing a long and dedicated career.

Randy is survived by his wife, Judy, of the home. He leaves behind his daughters, Miranda

Harrison and husband Jared of Paoli, and Melissa Tweedy of Madill; and his sons, Deke

Chandler and wife Andrea of Whitebead, Zach Chandler and wife Sandra of Roff, Charles Tweedy and wife Susan of Gales Ferry, Connecticut, and Shane Chandler and wife Cristina who of Roff, OK.

He is also survived by his brother, Rick Chandler and wife Jo of Wynnewood, and his sister, Velia Gibson of Kimberling City, Missouri. Randy was blessed with eleven granddaughters, one grandson, six great-granddaughters, and three great-grandsons, along with several nieces and nephews who loved him dearly.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Ted and Evelyn Chandler, and two grandsons.

The family would like to thank everyone for joining them to celebrate a man who lived life to the fullest and brought so much love into their lives. Funeral services will be held on
